

Internet Use Policy and Agreement

Computer users must agree to the following policy before using computers:

I Agree To The Following Rules:

- No Cell Phone Use at the Computers
- User understands that he or she has no expectation of privacy. Computers are monitored by the library staff.
- User understands that the library is required to filter computer content under the Children's Internet Protection Act. These filters block images that are obscene, pornographic or harmful to minors. Some obscene images are not caught by filters and users may be asked to stop viewing images that are considered to be harassing or harmful to other library users.
- User agrees to not damage library hardware, software and all equipment that are property of the library nor use computers for illegal purposes such as copyright violation; disruption or damage to library computers, networks or other users.
- User understands that there is a charge for making copies. User agrees to pay for all copies made at $.20 a page for black & white copies and $1.00 a page for color.
- User understands that minors (under age 18) must have the consent of a parent or guardian. Parents or guardians understand that library computers allow access to Face book and other social networking websites. Minors age 10 and under must be accompanied by an adult.
- User understands that small children cannot be allowed to play on computers or handle library equipment.
- User understands that there is a one-hour time limit on computer use.
- User understands that nothing can be saved to the computer's hard drive or desktop. User is responsible for bringing a USB flash/travel drive for saving information.
- User understands that failure to abide by the library rules will result in a written warning and if behavior continues, ultimately loss of computer privileges.
- User understands that computers will be shut down at 15 minutes before closing time.
